Savor Luxury on the La Jolla Coast The Junior League of San Diego's 10th Annual Island Divine

LA JOLLA, CA - The Junior League of San Diego announced today the return of their premiere food and wine tasting event- Island Divine: Santorini. The event will take place Saturday, May 1, 2010 from 3:00-7:00 PM at Ellen Scripps Browning Park on the La Jolla Cove.

Enjoy dazzling wines and lavish cuisine under the summer skies while indulging in the spirit of charity at the Junior League of San Diego's annual spring fundraiser. La Jolla Cove provides the backdrop for an unforgettable day of entertainment, amazing auction opportunities, a chic VIP tent and fine wines and spirits perfectly paired with exquisite cuisine, all while transporting guest to the Greek island of Santorini.

At Island Divine: Santorini, you'll spend a Saturday afternoon sampling some of the best award-winning wines, unique brews, delicious liqueurs and culinary delights the San Diego area has to offer. The VIP area boasts complimentary valet parking, early check-in and special treats throughout the day, including exclusive cooking demonstrations and dazzling drinks, prepared exclusively for Island Divine VIP guests. All attendees will have a chance to bid at the spectacular silent auction, with packages including airline/vacation packages, tickets to Chargers' games, resort stays, and many more luxury items!

At the 2009 event, more than 40 vendors provided "divine" samples to more than 750 guests. The event yielded over $50,000 in support of the Junior League's programs and projects which currently address the growing problem of childhood obesity through working in the community to teach families and children the importance of a healthy lifestyle.
